

Disbursement for Books and Supplies

Books and supplies are provided upon enrollment. If a student's books are not here within 7 days of their start date, they will be provided with loaner books until they arrive, as required by the Department of Education. Other kit materials will be given to students upon the completion of their First Phase of Study (Orientation), which at that point they can service the public.